Caltrans Defends Status Quo, Tries Last Ditch Effort to Derail Complete Streets Bill

We're in the home stretch for this year's legislative session, and while we're thrilled our Complete Streets for Active Living bill \(SB 127\) bill made it out of Assembly Appropriations, the forces defending the status quo still threaten its passage!

Check out our latest recap on where SB 127 stands »

Welcome Alma Leyva Orozco, our new Policy & Programs Coordinator

Join us in welcoming Alma Leyva Orozco to the Cal Walks team! Alma brings a wealth of experience with resident leadership development and will helping our team strengthen our ground-up policy advocacy approach. As a queer woman of color and formerly undocumented youth, Alma is passionate about social justice and advancing an intersectional approach to our work.

Come Join Our Team—We're Hiring!

The fight for safe streets and just communities is tough, but that's exactly why we need you to come join our team! We're currently hiring two positions to join us later this fall:

• Community Programs Coordinator \(Southern California\): this position will work with our team to advance our community co-powerment work in Orange County, Southern California, and beyond!

• Walk San Jose Community Outreach Assistant \(San Jose\): this position will spearhead our community mobilization efforts in support of our Vision Zero campaigns and events in the heart of Silicon Valley.
